3RD PASTORAL, SPIRITUAL & RELIGIOUS SUMMIT 2022 - THURSDAY JULY 14TH 2022

Let's talk about proactively managing pastoral, spiritual and religious belief in the workplace.

How should we think about the role of pastoral, spiritual and religious belief in our organisations? How do large organisations such as the NHS, Police, Fire Service, Local government and others handle issues surrounding spirituality in the workplace?

Founded in 2019 the third summit will bring together people from across the public sector together to connect, explore and act on issues relating to pastoral, spiritual and religious belief, political questions and shared societal concerns.

This year's summit will be joined by a wide variety of speakers and will address the following key areas:

- Faith in democracy – the diversity of religions
- The hollowness of religious illiteracy
- Voicing diverse spiritual and religious needs
- Relationships, presence and hope and university chaplaincy during the COVID-19 Pandemic
- Managing the complexities of identity religion, spirituality, culture and health
- Self, suffering and spirituality: our common humanity
- Supporting religious identity in the NHS to improve staff and patient wellbeing
- The placing of religion in policing and policing
- First responder chaplaincy for the 21st century

Our summits attract a diverse audience if you have an interest in advancing pastoral, spiritual and religious support come and join us. Cost: £149 + VAT.
